Application claim 19 corresponds to patent claim 1. In the Amendment filed on October 26, 2006, the recitation in application claim 19 "and a housing mounted to an underside of said top surface of said article of furniture", which appeared in the prior version of the claim, was inadvertently omitted as a result of a typographical error. This recitation appeared in the prior versions of claim 19, including claim 19 as originally filed. Additionally, this typographical error was addressed at page 2 of the Appeal Brief filed on January 9, 2008. Accordingly, the prosecution history of this patent application clearly establishes that the requested correction is supported by the record, and results from a typographical error which occurred in good faith, and does not involve any changes to the patent which would constitute new matter or would require reexamination.

Enclosed is the required fee for issuance of the requested Certificate of Correction.

The undersigned respectfully requests that the enclosed Certificate of Correction be approved and issued.

Respectfully submitted,
